Last term, Michael, Anna, Aisha, Sheila, Diana, James, Peter, Ian, and David – students at St Paul's High School in Edinburgh, Scotland – went on a three-day class trip to London. It was a big event. Now they are in class 7 and remember their trip.

VERBS

to remember – sich erinnern

I didn't like the train journeys. Those five hours there and back on the train were very exhausting.

Michael

It was funny that they asked us if we had any alcohol or cigarettes with us at the youth hostel.

Anna

We did the sightseeing tour by bus at the end of the first day. That was great. It would have been a very long walk.

Aisha

To see the Crown Jewels at the Tower of London and to listen to the bloody stories of this famous castle was a great start of the second day.

Sheila

The picnic at Hyde Park on the second day was nice until Peter splashed water at me and I got angry.

Diana

I think the Natural History Museum was a boring end of the second day of our trip. I've been to the American Museum of Natural History in New York City and it was way better.

Even though I don't like shopping as much as my sister Lisa, I really enjoyed shopping at Camden Market on our third day. They had a lot of cool baseball caps there.

James

I didn't like our last activity, the ride on the London Eye. I'm not a fan of heights and I got sick because the pod was shaking a little bit.

Ian

Three days just weren't enough to explore all the special places of London. There is way more to see and do.

David

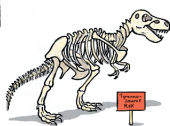

Peter
